

HVAF invites you to the 4th annual Operation Alpha

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Indianapolis, IN – Four years ago, Travis Barnes, a service-disabled Marine Corps veteran and partner of Hotel Tango Artisan Distillery, started Operation Alpha to support HVAF of Indiana's veterans in need.

This Friday, Hotel Tango and The Tinker House Events will host its fourth annual Operation Alpha at Tinker House, 1101 E. 16th St. The event will consist of a casual and relaxed evening of drinks, food, fun and entertainment, with the proceeds going to HVAF.

Guests will enjoy an open bar with drinks from Hotel Tango, Sun King Brewery, Upland Brewery, and The Wine Group, and a buffet with delicious food provided by Hoagies and Hops, Black Plate Catering, Mimi Blue Meatballs, Oak Indy Catering, and Illinois Street Emporium.

There will also be live music, silent auction items, a special cigar veranda and a one-of-a-kind military-inspired Grog-Bowl ceremony.

We encourage everyone to dress casual, and in a way that represents the military branch they would like to honor.

To financially support this event, provide auction or in-kind items or to purchase tickets, please contact Lauren Carpenter at lcarpenter@hvaf.org.

About HVAF: HVAF of Indiana, Inc. helps homeless veterans return to self-sufficiency and engages at-risk veterans and their families to prevent them from becoming homeless by providing supportive housing, case management, food, hygiene, and clothing; as well as other essential services.
